Dear Parents and Members of the Olinda School Learning Community,

Parents and teachers function like a mirror to a child by letting him or her know what they are really like. Parents who are proud of, have confidence in and like their child are strengthening their child's ego and helping them to develop self-acceptance and inner harmony. As parents and teachers we can do these three easy things:

1. Love and accept our child as they are from the day they were born.
2. Respect individual differences and appreciate each child's unique characteristics.
3. Show affection frequently – physically cuddling a baby or young child and by hugging an older child or even just patting them on the back will show positive affection. Show your affection verbally through our choice of words and tone of voice.

In closing, if I may assist you or your children in any way possible or answer any questions that you may have please call me at 714.528.7475 or e-mail me at rrendon@bousd.us

Sincerely,

Mr. Rendon
Principal
